Free Job and Resource Fair on Nov. 5 Connects Sacramento Residents to Local Hiring, Community Resources and Services

One stop for jobs, training programs, benefits enrollment, and support for housing, food, and mental health.

SACRAMENTO, CA, Oct. 27, 2025 – Public Health Advocates, in collaboration with partners through the Community Health in Action (CHIA) Coalition, will host a free Job and Resource Fair at the Fruitridge Community Collaborative on Wednesday, Nov. 5, 2025, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The fair empowers residents in the Fruitridge Pocket area with access to employment opportunities, community resources, and support services in one place.

The fair is part of a broader community effort under Sacramento County's Community Health Improvement Plan (CHIP) to strengthen housing stability, food access, mental health, and leadership development in under-resourced areas.

Event Highlights:

- Hiring employers onsite
- Know Your Rights workshops
- Connections to benefits and community resources
- Free refreshments and giveaways while supplies last

"This is about more than jobs. It is about opportunity, access, and connection," said Crystal Harding, Program Manager, Public Health Advocates. "The CHIA coalition is working to close equity gaps and uplift Sacramento communities through linkage to meaningful employment and resources."

Job and Resource Fair Details:

- Date: Wednesday, November 5, 2025
- Time: 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
- Location: Fruitridge Community Collaborative, 4625 44th St., Sacramento, CA 95820
